GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

It seems as if the managers of numerous ball clubs have suddenly come to the conclusion that Pete McShannic is a good third base player. During the last few days he has had many offers and yesterday Mr. J. W. Waltz, Vice President of the Baltimore Baseball Club, was in the city trying to secure bim. All offers for McShannic are too late, however, because he has accepted the terms of the Hamilton club.

Mr. Waltz is one of the most genial young gentleman one can meet. His frankness and intelligence make it interesting to converse with him on baseball matters. Yesterday he said many interesting things regarding national game during a conversation with the writer. He said:

"I came here to try and sign McShannic to play short for us. I have seen him play and I think him one of the most promising young players I know of. I find I came too late, how-ever, as he has agreed to go to Hamilton. I am surprised that Pittsburg should allow such a promising player as McShannic to go. Now that I cannot get him I don't want any of the other young players here.

BALTIMORP'S GOOD PROSPECTS. We have a good third baseman in Shindle, and I think McShannic would have been good at short. The prospects of our club are good, and I think we will stand well up in the Asso ciation race. Kilroy is ready to sign as soon as I want him. Manager Barnie is busy looking after the improvements in our grounds."

Mr. Waltz was asked about the respective merits of the Association clubs and he replied: "I think the struggle this year will be between the Athletics and the Brooklyns. In my estimation either of these clubs is stronger than St. Louis. The latter is weakening and the Eastern clubs are getting better. If St. Louis had played as poorly during last season as it did against New York, Von der Ahe's men would have finished fourth in the Association race instead of first. The Browns certainly did not play their best game against the Giants. Luck was against them."

Regarding the graded salary question Mr. Waitz said: "The Association will be in line with the League, depend upon it. We have come to the conclusion just as emphatically as the League that high salaries are ruining the prospects of the game. The matter is, indeed, a serious one with the Association, and I expect it is the same with the League. From what I know of our intentions I think the general PRINCIPLE OF THE LEAGUE plan will be adopted by us. I think we will de enough to prevent a uniform or national agreement on the matter. Of course we meet after the League, but that will not interfere with any common conclusion on the mat ter. Any suggestions that we may make can be referred to the Arbitration Committee. The League can do the same, and after all suggestions and proposed amendments are sub-mitted the Arbitration Committee can make a new rule and insert it in the national agree-ment. This can all be done without any great trouble, because as I say, we will adopt the general principle of the League's rule." Speaking about Association clubs joining the Speaking about Association clubs joining the League, Mr. Waltz said: "I give no credence whatever to the stories about Brooklyn joining the League. President Byrne is too shrewd a business man to do that, and were he willing to do so President J. B. Day would object. Brooklyn has, nothing to gain but much to lose by joining the League. Byrne has a bonaum in the home Sunday games. I should think they are worth $50,000 to the club, and he will not throw that away. It may be that Cincinnati has a desire to join the League and it may not. However, if the Reds do leave us we will certainly get something else. The game is becoming popular and cities are growing up. I don't think, however, that Cincinnati is as eager to join the League as some people imagine. I am also fully persuaded that Cincinnati would not gain anything by leaving us. If the Reds join the League they will lose their Sunday games, and that will be a great loss. Besides I don't think that Cincinnati is a 50-cent ball town. This really is the important feature, and were a change to be made it might be rainous. Of a change to be made it might be ruinous. Of course I have heard and read lots about a conoliention of the principal Association and eagne clubs into one grand organization, such a thing may come, but it is too far ahead et to seriously discuss."

DISTEMPER AT LEXINGTON.

Owners and Trainers Somewhat Scared About Their Horses.

LEXINGTON, February 10 .- The exemption from disease the horses have enjoyed that are wintering here this year at the association course and other training tracks in this section has been decidedly marked, but at this writing owners and trainers alike are somewhat wor ried over the sudden appearance of a most violent type of distemper, which threatens to become an epidemic. Among the horses now suffering from the disease is the great colt Champagne Charley, and it is feared that i Champagne Charley, and it is feared that it may seriously affect his training for his early engagements; in fact, it is now believed that his trainer will not be able to bring him to the post in first-class condition before the middle of the summer or early in the autumn. Several in Brown Dick's stable are also slightly affected with the disease, while Byron McClelland's string have not escaped the disagreeable malady. Except where other complications exist, the disease is not considered fatal; it, however, has a tendency to leave its effects on the inflicted ones, not infrequently injuring the lungs and resulting in the roaring propensity, which prevents a borse from covering a distance of ground.

The First Big Bet.

NEW YORK, February 10.-Bookmakers and turimen are talking to-day over the first bet of the year on the great Suburban handicap, which was made at the St. James Hotel last which was made at the St. James Hotel last night. Dave Johnson, the bookmaker, thinks there is no horse in the world to compare with The Bard. W. C. Lyon, of Chicago, who is stopping at the hotel, believes that the Chicago horse, Terra Cotta, is as fast an animal as ever stood on plates. The two men had an argument about the merits of the two thoroughbreds, which culminated in Johnson betting Lyon 8500 that The Bard would beat Terra Cotta. Both must start or the bettis off. The Bard carries 130 pounds and Terra Cotta 120.

In Favor of Kelly.

New York, February 10.—Jack Kelly, of this city, and Maurice Rose, of Brooklyn, en-gaged in a fight for a $300 purse this afternoon in a barn near Gravesend. After three rounds the fight came very near becoming general. Rose violated many rules, and when at the end Hose violated many rules, and when at the end of the third round be continued to punch his antagonistafter "time" had been called, Johnny Golden, the referee, decided the fight in favor of Kelly. Rose's admires grew furious, but the more fair-minded declared the decision a just one, and interfered to prevent the onslaught attempted on Referee Golden.

Assaulted Duning. According to reports from St. Louis Fred Dunlap, Captain of the local ball club, was grossly assaulted in that city Friday evening in Bamberger's saloon. He, accompanied by Jim Davis, King Werdon, Bur Holliday and Brennan, was having a drink in the saloon when a tough introduced himself as a member of the party. Dunlap refused to accept his company, and the tough blackened Fred's eye. In less than two minutes the tough was assisted out of the saloon horrfiby different in appearance to what he was when he entered.

Jockey McLaughlin. Jimmy McLaughlin, the famous jockey, passed through the city last evening on his way West. He was looking extremely well, and expressed the opinion that he might reach 'Frisco before he returned East. He would venture no opinion about any future results.

A REAL FARCE.

Tommy Ward and Kennard Dupe a Number of Fistic Sports. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

FINDLAY, O., February 10 .- For the past month Tommy Ward and Jimmy Kennard, better known as "The St. Paul kid," have been in training here for a mill to decide the lightweight championship of Ohio and to secure a purse of $500 contributed by the sporting men of this city. The fact that these bantams were soon to meet in the ring at this place, while kept from the general public, was pretty well known by the sports throughout the State, and as a consequence, not less than 300 of these gentlemen paid $3 each and rode about two miles west of this city at an early hour this meroing to see what was promised to be a fight to a finish with skin gloves.

The ring was pitched in the center of an old barn. Through six dreary rounds the greatest farce in the way of a prize fight that ever disgusted spectators was played for the edification of the rang of suckers. The men struck pathing but attitudes and not one hopest blow rised spectators was played for the enheation of the rang of suckers. The men struck nothing but attitudes, and not one honest blow was struck until near the close of the sixth round, when Kennard obligingly allowed Ward to knock him down, from the effects of which he could not recover. When time was called for the seventh round the referee could do nothing more than to award the purse and championship to Ward.

At the close the crowd was so exasperated over the farce that Kennard and Ward would both have been mobbed had they not hurriedly sought a waiting carriage which took them across the country to McComb, where they caught an early train for Cincinnati, while the sore sports returned to the city, where the greater part of the crowd are likely to be arrested before morning as the prosecuting attorney has had warrants issued for over 100 of the spectators.

A SPORTING SENSATION.

Slope Newspapers Refuse to be Parties to O'Consor-Gondour Hinnodrome.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SAN FRANCISCO, February 10 .- Under the head, "take back your money," this morning's Examiner sets forth its reasons for refusing to be the final stakeholder in the O'Connor-Gaudaur rowing match in this city on March 1. This action has caused a sensation in sporting circles here, and is being discussed in all its phases. The Examiner says the hollow style in which O'Connor defeated Teemer looks like a fake. Gaudaur previously refused to row the present champion, because of lack of reputation. The forfelt in the present match was placed with a newspaper in St. Louis, but the articles of agreement were not signed by the men when departing for the Pacific coast.
This looked strange. Forty thousand people saw O'Connor win from Peterson here last spring, 10,000 paying $1 a head. Gaudaur and O'Connor were sure enough of each other to believe there would be no hitch in the way of making considerable money. The Chronicle was made final stakeholder, but no deposit was made to bind the articles or guarantee that made to bind the articles or guarantee that either man would row. J. A. St. John, Gau-daur's backer, then changed from the Chronicle to the Examiner. The Examiner refuses, and intimates that the race is a fake, got up to capture the money of the San Francisco sports. The oarsmen are very indignant.

The News About Smith and Kilrain Cause

a Little Excitement. NEW YORK, February 10.—The news that the friends of Kilrain and Jem Smith had all but completed arrangements for a meeting next October, whether the Baltimorean won from Sullivan in July or not, caused a slight ripple of excitement in the ranks of the lovers of a mill resterday. The delegation of sporting men eaving at 6 o'clock by the West Shore road for Chicago to attend the McAuliffe-Myers fight next week had a good deal to say about it, and the prospective meeting of Mitchell and Smith in a ten-round glove contest for $1,000. Dempsey, who is in the West on his sparring tour, will return to New York early this week, and McCaffrey will have abundant chances to talk the matter over with the Nonpareil. Dominick has set his heart on a sparring tour through England with Dumpsey as his side partner. He will have nothing further to say to Jack Fallon, the Brooklyn strong boy, but will devote his entire attention to the task of bringing Dempsey into the 24-foot ring.

Mr. Emery Pays $15,000 to Own the Other

C. F. Emery, of the Forest City Farm, came home from Canada yesterday morning. He had been to Brantford, Ont., to see Cope Stinson hone the Cleveland colts in the land of spoy and loyalty and was satisfied with the sight. With him went Dr. W. C. Fair and W. H. Mc-Curdy. They met Tom Axworthy at Brant ford. Coming home Mr. Emery did some important business, and for about $15,000 paid to A. D. Merrill, of Tilsonburg, he secured the A. D. Merrill, of Tilsonburg, he secured the other half of the great stallion Patron, 2:14%. Two years ago Mr. Emery became interested in the horse and paid Mr. Merrill $12,500 for a half interest in him. The Canadian and Cleveland interests collided and Mr. Emery's deal was about a necessity. Pat is coming 7 years old and well worth the price he stood Mr. Emery, $27,500. He is now with George Fuller and the Forest City Farm colts at Columbus, Ga., and will probably be campaigned this summer to beat the stallion race record—Phallas' $133%—and the stallion dress parade mark—Maxy Cobb's 2:13%. Pat's record is 2:14%, made July 29, 1887, on the Cleveland track. He is by Pancoast, dim Beatrice, by Cuyler, and as is by Pancoast, dam Beatrice, by Cuyler, and as much of a stud star as any trotter ever foaled. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hogan Wants a Go.

A backer of Tommy Hogan was told last evening of the result of the affair between Ward and Kennard. Hogan's backer said: "Tommy will fight either Ward or Kennard for a stake with or without gloves, and he will fight them both in one week for not less than $200 a side. Hogan will weigh in at legitimate bantam weight, and we may be disposed to give a pound or two. Let Ward or kennard's triends state through THE DISPATCH that they want

The loss is estimated at between $50,000 and $75,000.

THE BARS LET DOWN

Cleveland's Order Extending Civil Service Rules to 5,200 Clerks

Senators a Foothold.

NO COMMISSION NOW IN EXISTENCE.

Syndicate.

Republican politicians for some time past have been worked up over the extension by President Cleveland of civil service rules to the 5,200 employes of the railway mail service. They think they now see a way to head it off. They will refuse to confirm cessor. No commission, they say, no change in the railway mail service as far as civil service rules go. They intend to fight it out on that line anyhow.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, February 10 .- The Republican Senators will probably decide within the next few days that party policy demands the rejection of the nomination of Hugh S. Thompson to be Civit Service mmissioner. It is held by the Republican lawyers in the Senate that so long as there are two vacancies there is no legal commission, and therefore, that if Mr. Thompson's nomination is not confirmed, the work of the Civil Service Commission must stop until after the 4th of March. Senstor Allison said as much as this in a speech a few days ago, and at the time he made his remarks Judge Edgerton was, to all intents and purposes, an active official.

The reason why the Republican Senators are so extremely anxious to tie the hands of the commission is that they hope to find some way to prevent the carrying out of the order of the President placing the 5,200 employes of the railway mail service under the operation of the civil service law. This order is to take effect on the 15th of February HARD TO THINK OF.

To see this great army of appointees, two thirds of whom are Democrats, taken from their control and surrounded with safeguards against removals, is what causes the greatest sorrow to the Republicans, and they are nursing a fond hope that some way will be found to nullify the order. If it shall be found that the President, the Civil Service Commissioners and the Postmaster General have not already taken all neces sary and legal steps to carry out the order into effect, it is probable that it can be rendered inoperative. Several Republican Senators claim that this is the fact, and that the approval of the commission to certain acts is yet necessary before the 15th of Feb-ruary, and that there is now no power existing to place the railway mail service employes under the operation of the law.

Democrats claim, however, that nothing remains to be done that requires any action outside of that of the President and the Postmaster General, and that on the 15th of February the civil service law will throw its protecting arms about the railway mail service as gently as if the Republican administration were not just coming into

The Republicans cannot bear the thought of this being done, because once within the power of the law all these employes will be their reach. The Democrats can, o course, all be removed on various pretexts, but there is no power that can get the old but there is no power that can get the old Republicans back except through the regular channel of tree and open civil service

The Republicans charge that the entire mail service has been demoralized by the removal of old and competent men, and that they will make things all right when the Harrison administration comes in. Just how they can do it after the 15th of February is a mystery. That they intend to try is shown by the steps they have already taken. On motion of Mr. Chase, the Senate has adopted a resolution calling for a list of all changes of employes since 1885, and Senator Paddock has introduced a bill providing that the organic civil service act, passed in 1883, shall not be construed as including within its pro-visions the employes of the railway mail service. Senator Paddock will call this bill up in a day or two, and will lead off the Republican attack on the postal service in a long speech, in which he will claim that the service in the West has been rendered worse than useless by the wholesale removal of old and competent employes.

Mr. Paddock's charge will be followed up by other Senators, and a general debate on the civil service reform as applied to the mail service will take place.

DEATH FOR A SCHEME.

A Portrait of Lincoln for Sale to Uncle San Said to Belong to a Syndicate.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, February 10 .- It crops out that the full-length portrait of Lincoln for the purchase of which a bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Voorhees, appropriating $15,000 for the purpose, is not the property of the artist, but a syn dicate of speculators, who, if they can lobby their bill through Congress, will clear nearly the entire amount of the appropriation. It was also discovered that the picture is one which hung for long years in the reading room of a prominent hotel in this city, simply because there was no sale for it. About a year ago it disappeared. It was then that the syndicate got possession of it. They had the artist take it to a secluded place, touch it up and change some of the accessories, and then brought it forth as a picture painted from life, though there is no record of the martyred President ever having given a sitting to any artist bearing the name of the person who produced this portrait.

In its present renovated condition the face is that of a man much younger than the President was when he occupied the chair of the Chief Executive. Whether Senator Voorhees was aware that the portrait for which $15,000 is asked was bought by the syndicate of speculators for a couple of hundred is not known.

Some of the tenants claim to have seen strange men loitering about the place during the day. The other tenants in the house were asleep at the time, and shake their heads over the story of strangers. Some of them hint that the real incendiaries are to be found not far away from 7 Hester street itself, but their lack of explicitness as to names and persons was exceedingly well marked when the reporter questioned them. No motive apparently exists for such an attempt on the part of any of the tenants. None of them are protected by insurance, the companies having, it is said, more than once refused to take risks in that house. It is said that a feud exists between Rosenblatt & Tramer, the proprietors of the shop in the basement, and Lichman, who keeps the restaurant. Mrs. Harris, the usekeeper, is said to side with the Lichman's in the controversy.

ANARCHY AND SECULARISM

Join Hands in Chicago and Denounce Chri tianity and Capitalists.

CHICAGO, February 10 .- The Anarchist orators to-day temporarily abandoned their usual Sunday themes and joined forces with the leaders of the Secular Union in denunciation of United States Senator Blair and a couple of laws he wishes to have enacted. One of the proposed statutes provides for enforcing the observance of Sunday as a day of rest, and the other proposes a consti-tutional amendment making it obligatory for the public schools to teach the principles of the Christian religion.

The first speaker, Jens Christensen, editor of the Arbeiter Zietung, ridiculed re-ligion in general and Christianity in particular, and spoke of socialism as the only true doctrine for the government of nations or individuals. He was followed by E. A. Stevens, Secretary of the National Secular Union. Mr. Stevens declared that any man who attempted to force the people to believe in any religion or to observe the Sabbath was a public enemy.

Anarchist Paul Grottkau spoke in German, asserting there was a conspiracy of bishops, cardinals and capitalists to force the discussion of religion, so as to smother the great social question. They also sought to train up the children in superstitious slavery. He warned them against this pro-gramme, "for," said he, "the time is at hand when the people, by force, will take the Government into their own hands."

SEWALL ON BAYARD.

The ex-Consul Tells Where the Secretary Was Remiss, and Failed

TO SAVE THE NATION'S DIGNITY.

The Samoan Conference Ought to be Held in Washington, and

A TRUCE SHOULD BE INSISTED UPON America's Prestige Irretrievably Weakened in the Pacific Islands.

Mr. Sewall, until recently Consul General at Samoa, talks freely on Secretary Bayard's conduct of the affair. He says that the Secretary should have called the attention of Congress to the outrages as soon as they occurred. Immediate and positive action is now necessary, he asserts, to save the country's dignity. He pays a dubious compliment to Mr. Coleman, who represents the United States in the pending conference at Berlin.

WASHINGTON, February 10 .- Mr. Se wall, late Consul General in Samoa, talked freely to-day in regard to the proposed Samoan conference at Berlin. Among other things he said:

"Consider the genesis of the conference i is proposed to renew. It was summoned by our Secretary of State; it assembled at our capital on the acknowledged basis of an equality of rights of these three treaty powers, of which we were the first. Its object was the preservation of Samoan autonomy, upon which all our national and commercial interests in Samoa depend. While the conference was yet unconcluded, with no notice to this Government, the Ger man ships came to Samoa and took possession of the islands in violation of the understanding on which the pending negotiations were proceeding.

SAVE THE NATION'S DIGNITY.

"If the conference is to be renewed at all, t should be renewed under conditions as favorable to us as those which attended its initiation. The status ante conferendum should be restored, and Malietoa, for whose deposition we are morally responsible, should be returned from exile, and it should meet here, where it was interrupted and where our representative would be free from the peculiar influences now at work at Berlin. But were the suggestions of Mr. Bayard, in his letter to the German Minister, made conditions precedent to the reassembling of the conference, we might even then enter upon the conference with something of our national dignity saved. Mr. Bayard suggests a truce in Samoa-he does not insist upon it.

The position maintained in the conference by Mr. Bayard has not, I believe, been criticised. That the independence of the islands should be maintained and equality of rights of commerce and navigation as-sured for the subjects of the then treaty powers, was agreed upon. Our rights are not enlarged by this, but only confirmed.

But having secured this recognition of our rights, Mr. Bayard rested. And it is because of this—because pending the con-ference he submitted to the violation of these rights-that he has been criticise even by Mr. Bates, upon whose recommendation Mr. Bayard's entire contention in the conference was based. Mr. Bayard did not resent this action of Germany, accompanied At 1:30 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the bake shop of Joseph Simons, No. 1346 Penn avenue. GREAT SUFFERING.

"My system had become so poisoned with catarrh that it caused me great suffering. The tough tenacious mucus in my throat would choke me terribly. My throat was so infiamed that I could not swallow without great pain. The disease also affected my head, so that pieces of bone came from my nose, and it even ate holes through the roof of my mouth. I had ringing sounds and much pain in my ears, diziness and belching of gas from my stomach. After trying many treatments of various kinds, I began treatment with the physicians of
